Our wine list features producers, labels, and vineyards from almost every major wine region worldwide, for a selection that is both familiar and adventurous. Two guiding principles inspire our wine list: sustainability and harmony with the dinner menu. Bacar has long emphasized artisanal product, both in its support for local farms and its commitment to in-house butchering and hand-made charcuterie. We offer a rich selection of wines to complement the bold flavors of our cuisine, with a desire to support local boutique wineries and producers that emphasize sustainable winemaking practices.

Grower-Producer Champagne

Here at Bacar we have a special fondness for grower-producer Champagne. When a wine is designated as grower-producer, it means that the winemaker cultivates his own land and uses only his own grapes in the production of the wine. Such wines are a rare treat in our current market dominated by enormous Champagne houses such as Roederer and Moët et Chandon. Grower-producer Champagnes are consistently good with deeply expressive personalities all their own.

- Diebolt-Vallois, à Cramant Blanc de Blancs, 1979 235
Hints of caraway, chalk, lemon peel, and apple underscore this creamy, lush Champagne, produced by the husband-wife team of Jacques Diebolt and Nadia Vallois.
- Egly-Ouriet Extra Brut VP, Grand Cru, Ambonnay, NV 200
Egly-Ouriet produces rich, full-bodied Champagnes that are unique because they are unfiltered. Nutty with aromas of baked fruits, with strong mineral and chalky notes.
- Gonet-Medeville 'La Grand Ruelle' Extra-Brut, 2002 300
Production of this blanc de noirs is limited to fewer than 100 cases per year. The chalky soils of Ambonnay produce wines with intense steely minerality, plus spiced pear, tart apple, and peach nuances.
- René Geoffroy 'Expression' Brut, 1er Cru, Cumières, NV 125
The foamy mousse gives off aromas of apples, rising bread dough, and cocoa. Creamy and lush, with a tart, crisp finish.
